B. Commitment to the Program's Terms and Conditions

If your child is selected for the 2011 Preparing Philadelphia's Future Global Leaders program, the following writing will serve as the agreement between you, your child, your family and the program itself.

- The terms and conditions of this agreement shall commence on the date you signed, and shall continue until the completion of the PPFGL program.

- During the period in which the terms and conditions of this agreement are effective, the selected students and families agree to the following:

1. Attendance

By accepting these terms and conditions, you are making a commitment to the entire duration of the ten-day program, beginning on Tuesday, July 5, 2011 and ending on Saturday, July 16, 2011.

Selected students must arrive at the Russell Byers Charter School by 9AM on Tuesday, July 5, 2011 and must attend every class until the program concludes on Friday, July 15, 2011 except for excused absence(s) that we've been notified in a timely manner.

2. Academic and Administrative Requirements

All participants will abide by the instructions, rules and requirements of the program academically and administratively during the registration process, while onsite participating in the program, or during post-program follow-up (such as surveys).

3. Medical Emergency Form, Photo Release Form

The above 2 forms will be released to you as time approaches. Please complete them and bring them with you to submit on the first day. All students participating in the program MUST have completed Medical Emergency Form and Photo Release Form on file.

4. FREE breakfast with each class

To make the summer morning routine as easy as possible for our attending families, we will be providing a FREE breakfast to each student in the program.

5. Celebratory Lunch on Last Day

Please note that this lunch is free only to students who have successfully participated through the entire duration of the program (excused absences are permitted).

6. Program's Financial Value

Although this program is offered to you free of charge, the actual monetary value of your participation is about $1,000, for all costs associated with the classes, the field trip, the celebratory lunch, and other incidentals.
